Our firm operates under the belief that good design is not defined in one particular style or genre. Good design is thoughtful, it is informed, and tailored to the end user to improve their daily life through function and beauty. We have an affinity for historical influences but are also constantly inspired by nature, modern art, fashion, and the beauty of human diversity. This collection was informed by over a decade of Rebecca’s firsthand experience in the field of cabinetry design for residential new build construction. We cannot wait to collaborate with you through this collection and see what beautiful spaces you create.

ABOUT THE COLLECTION

A strong appreciation for classic, historical design combines with a fearless embrace of innovation in this collection by Rebecca Gibbs. Her signature aesthetic is a charming integration of well-planned, thoughtful designs that have beautifully unexpected moments throughout. Specializing in ground-up residential builds, Rebecca's constant designer is to infuse new homes with old soul.

Rooted in design history, this timeless collection still reads fresh and youthful. A classic sensibility mixes with eclectic details to provide style versatility, while earthy, complex colors keep the collection from feeling overly saccharine.
